

User Community Notice: 2020 AR-1

Dear Valued No-Fault Customers:

Thank you for all your valuable feedback regarding the new Form AR-1. Please note, based on your suggestions the following final updates have been made:

- The data fields, on the AR-1 and supplemental pages have been expanded to accommodate longer alphanumeric characters
- The claim details are now automatically totaled at the bottom of the page
- A “Total Amount in Dispute” field has been added at the top of page 3, where you can place your total amount in dispute in the event that you are using additional supplemental pages

An instructional video on how to complete the Form AR-1 will be released soon.

The Form AR-1 is available on our website at:

https://nysinsurance.adr.org/sites/default/files/document\_repository/AR-1\_Form\_2.pdf

The prescribed form will be required for all filings submitted effective January 1, 2020. Please be assured the remainder of the filing process will remain intact. You may submit your filings via email to NYICMC.FilingSubmissions@adr.org or by mail to American Arbitration Association, 32 Old Slip, 33rd Floor, New York, NY 10005.

Please let us know if you experience any issues adapting to the new form. If you have any questions, please contact Deborah Bosketti at BoskettiD@adr.org.

Sincerely,
American Arbitration Association
